Vessella is well known on account of his mannerisms while wielding the baton on the steel pier at Atlantic City. He married Miss Egan five years ago, following a wooing that excited the attention of the whole country. During a summer visit with her mother at Atlantic City Miss Egan fell in love with the Italian bandmaster. Vessella reciprocated and dedicated a dreamy waitz to the object of his admiration and played it every day. Throngs at the pier watched Cupid's capers.

When Miss Egan returned to her home here Vessella carried on his courtship by telephone daily at a dollar a minute. The wedding took place in Cincinnati three wooths later.

Hearst Don't Want Bannard to Forget Some Things.

As has been his wont, Bannard con fined himself to business issues and was brief. Hearst spoke at length and continued his denunciation of William J: Gaynor, the democratic nominee, although he found time to refer to Bannard as a machine caudidate. "I Bannard as a machine candidate. "I have gotten into this fight to defeat both Gaynor and his Tammany machine and Bannard and his Woodruff machine," he said, "and I do not want Mr. Bannard to forget, in the heat and excitement of the campaign, that he is just as much of a machine candidate as Judge Gaynor is. York, Oct, 18 .- William R. | fended himself from the thrusts that Judge Gaynor has made, promment among them the fact that he was in-dorsed by Tammany when he ran for governor against Hughes. "Grover Cleveland," he said, "was a consistent Cleveland, he said, "was a consistent foe of Tammany Hall, yet he ran for governor of the state on a democratic ticket. I ran for governor of New York state as much a foe of Tammany Hall as I had run for mayor a foe of Tammany Hall the year before."

He went on to say that although nominated by the democrats he fought Charles F. Murphy throughout and at no time surrendered to Tammany.

"Why did not Judge Gaynor do as I do? Why did not Judge Gaynor denounce Murphy and McCarren? He had plenty of time to do it before McCarren got sick."
